As a hotel featuring 130 years of character complemented by the comfort and efficiency of a modern luxury hotel, the Capital stands apart from virtually every hotel in the U.S. It is located downtown and in addition to the Rivermarket and the Clinton Library, offers an array of museums and historic buildings all within walking distance. Shopping options range from boutiques to fashion malls each nearby but in different parts of town.

Sites of interest in the area include:

The Rivermarket – www.rivermarket.info.com

Little Rock's unique River Market is the vibrant epicenter of downtown's entertainment district; the River Market serves as the hub for capital city entertainment and family fun. Featuring two open-air pavilions, a 10,000 seat amphitheatre on the banks of the Arkansas River and an unparalleled indoor bazaar, the district offers an eclectic mix of shopping, cuisine, live music, art and the annual Farmers' Market. The Market Hall has 15 full-time merchants who are open year-round and offer specialty foods, fresh meats and seafood, flavorful baked goods, specialty coffees and much more. The River Market is the place to eat, shop, play and stay in Central Arkansas!
